

John 12:20-33

DFH Worship Translation

²⁰ Now some Greeks were among those who went up that they might worship at the festival.

²¹ Then they approached Philip from Bethsaida of Galilee and were asking him and saying, “Lord, we wish to see Jesus.”

²² Philip goes and tells Andrew, and Andrew and Philip go and tell Jesus.

²³ But Jesus answers them and says, “The hour has come that the Son of Man might be glorified.

²⁴ Truly, truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat, after falling, dies, it abides alone, but if it dies, it bears much fruit.

²⁵ The one who loves his soul destroys it, and the one who disregards his soul in this world will guard [it] into eternal life.

²⁶ If anyone might deacon me, let him follow me, and where I am, there also the deacon of me will be; if anyone might deacon me, the father will honor him.

²⁷ Just now my soul has been shaken, and what may I say? Father, save me from this hour? Rather for this I came into this hour.

²⁸ Father, glorify your name” So then there came a voice out of heaven, “I [both] have glorified and again I will glorify.”

²⁹ Then the crowd, having stood and heard, was saying, “Thunder has come about.” Other were saying, “An angel has spoken to him.”

³⁰ Jesus answered and said, “Not for me this voice came about, but for you.

³¹ Now is judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be cast outside.

³² And if I might be lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to me.”

³³ And this he was saying, signifying what kind of death he was about to die.
