

John 20:1-18

DFH Worship Translation

<sup>1</sup> Now on the first of the week, Mary Magdalene comes to the tomb early in the morning, while it is still dark, and sees [that] the stone had been taken away from the tomb.

<sup>2</sup> So she runs and goes to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved and she says to them, “They took the Lord from the tomb, and we do not know where they placed him.”

<sup>3</sup> Then Peter and the other disciple went out and were going to the tomb.

<sup>4</sup> And the two were running together, and the other disciple ran ahead faster than Peter and came to the tomb first.

<sup>5</sup> He bends over to look and sees linen cloths lying [there], but he did not enter.

<sup>6</sup> Then Simon Peter comes also, following him, and he entered into the tomb; he also observes the linen cloths lying [there],

<sup>7</sup> and the cloth that was upon his head [was] not with the linen cloths but [was] apart by itself and had been folded up in one place.

<sup>8</sup> So then the other disciple who came first to the tomb entered also, and he saw and believed;

<sup>9</sup> for they did not yet know the scripture that it was necessary [for] him to rise up from [the] dead.

<sup>10</sup> Then the disciples went away again to their [own places].

<sup>11</sup> But Mary had stood outside the tomb, weeping. As she weeps, she bends over to look inside the tomb,

<sup>12</sup> and she observes two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and one at the feet.

<sup>13</sup> They say to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She says to them, “They took away my lord, and I do not know where they placed him.”

<sup>14</sup> After saying these things, she turns around and observes Jesus, standing up, and she does not know that it is Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> Jesus says to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you searching for?” Supposing that he is the gardener, she says to him, “Sir, if you carried him away, tell me where you placed him, and I will take him.”

<sup>16</sup> Jesus says to her, “Mary.” She turns and says to him, in Hebrew, “Rabbouni,” which means teacher.

<sup>17</sup> Jesus says to her, “Do not hold me for I have not yet ascended to the father, but go to my brothers and tell them, ‘I am ascending to my father and your father, and to my God and your God.’”

<sup>18</sup> Mary Magdalene goes and announces to the disciples, “I have seen the lord,” and [she tells them] the things he said to her.
