

Luke 12:13-21

DFH Worship Translation

<sup>13</sup> And someone out of the crowd said to him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.”

<sup>14</sup> But he said to him, “Man, who appointed me a judge or a divider over you?”

<sup>15</sup> And he said to them, “Pay attention and be on guard from all covetousness, for one’s life [is] not in the abounding [to someone] of possessions.”

<sup>16</sup> And he told a parable to them, saying, “The field of a certain rich man bore good crops.

<sup>17</sup> And he was pondering to himself, saying, ‘What should I do? I do not have [a place] where I will gather my crops?’

<sup>18</sup> And he said, ‘This I will do. I will tear down my barns, and I will build larger [barns], and I will gather there all [my] grain and my good things.

<sup>19</sup> And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have many good things laid up for many years; rest, eat, drink, be glad.’

<sup>20</sup> But God said to him, ‘Thoughtless one, on this night they are demanding your soul from you, and what you prepared, to whom will it be [given]?’

<sup>21</sup> In this way [is] the one who stores for oneself and who is not rich toward God.”
