

Mark 10:32-45
DFH Worship Translation

³² And they were on the way, going up to Jerusalem, and while Jesus was going ahead of them, they were astounded and the ones who were following were afraid, and having taken along again the twelve, he began to tell them the things that were about to happen to him.

³³ “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes and they will sentence him to death and they will hand him over to the Gentiles.

³⁴ And they will ridicule him and spit on him and whip him and kill [him] and after three days, he will rise up.”

³⁵ And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approach him, saying to him, “Teacher, we wish that whatever we might ask for, you might do for us.”

³⁶ And he said to them, “What do you wish that I might do for you?”

³⁷ And they said to him, “Grant us that in your glory we might sit one on your right and one on [your] left.”

³⁸ But Jesus said to them, “You do not know what you are asking for. Are you able to drink the cup which I drink or be baptized with the baptism which I am baptized?”

³⁹ But they said to him, “We are able.” Then Jesus said to them, “The cup which I drink you will drink and the baptism [with] which I am baptized you will be baptized,

⁴⁰ but to sit on my right or on [my] left is not for me to give, but for the ones it has been prepared.”

⁴¹ And when they heard [this], the ten began to be angry with James and John.

⁴² And Jesus summoned them and said to them, “You know that those who seem to rule the Gentiles become masters over them and the great ones of them bring their authority down on them.

⁴³ But it is not so among you; but rather whoever might wish to become great with you will be the deacon,

⁴⁴ and whoever might wish to be first among you will be slave of all;

⁴⁵ for even the Son of Man did not come to be deaconed but to deacon and to give his life [as] a ransom on behalf of many.

Copyright Donald F. Heath, Jr. 2018