

Mark 8:31-38
DFH Worship Translation

³¹ And he began to teach them that it is necessary for the Son of Man to endure great suffering and to be rejected by the elders and the high priests and the scribes and to be killed and after three days to rise again.

³² And he was saying the word plainly and Peter took him and began to rebuke him.

³³ But after turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, “Go away behind me, Satan, because you are not fixing your thoughts on things of God but things of men.”

³⁴ And he called in the crowd with his disciples and said to them, “If anyone wishes to follow behind me, let him deny himself and take up his cross, and let him follow me.

³⁵ For whoever desires to save his life will destroy it, and whoever will destroy his life for the sake of me and the good news will save it.

³⁶ For what does it profit a man to gain the whole world and to forfeit his life?

³⁷ For what may a man give in exchange for his life?

³⁸ For whoever may be ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man also will be ashamed of him whenever he might come in the glory of his father with the holy angels.”
